

Transcription

T U E S D A Y

TUESDAY 23 JANUARY 2018

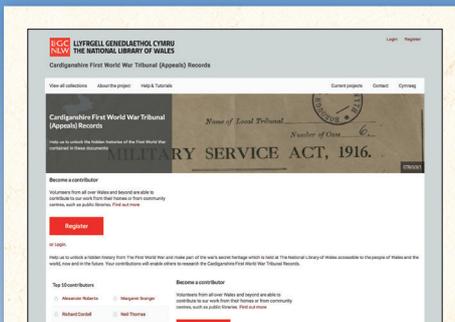

Give something back to family history!

Join Who Do You Think You Are? Magazine on 23 January and take part in our popular annual event Transcription Tuesday. We've chosen five vital projects to support, and are recruiting family historians from across the globe to transcribe and index records online. Which will you pick?

BEDFORDSHIRE WORKHOUSE AND POOR LAW RECORDS

An Ancestry World Archives project that will open up a range of fascinating records from the Bedfordshire Poor Law Unions.

CARDIGANSHIRE FIRST WORLD WAR TRIBUNAL APPEALS

The only set of First World War tribunal appeals against military conscription to have survived in Wales.

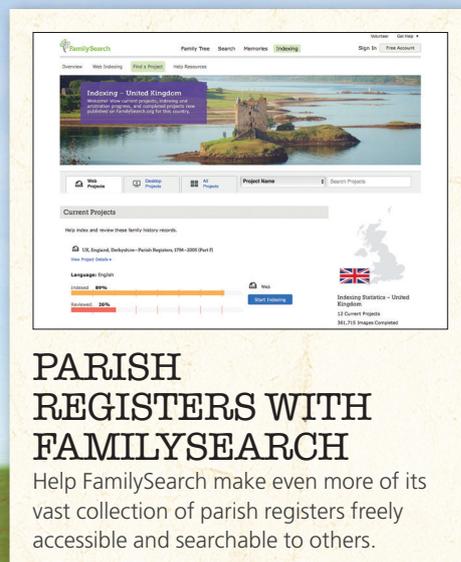

EUROPEANA 1914-1918

Personal letters, diaries and photographs from the First World War donated by members of the public as part of a Europe-wide project.

MEASURING THE ANZACS

Join this team as they help transcribe 140,000 New Zealand servicemen's personnel files from the First World War, including soldiers' enlistment records.

PARISH REGISTERS WITH FAMILYSEARCH

Help FamilySearch make even more of its vast collection of parish registers freely accessible and searchable to others.

VISIT

whodoyouthinkyouaremagazine.com/transcriptiontuesday

TO FIND OUT MORE ABOUT THE PROJECTS AND REGISTER YOUR INTEREST.